THE DAYS THAT ARE NO MORE

CHAS. Ho, ho! I know not what they mean.
From the depth of some sinister despair
How in the heart of night they come to me!
In looking on the happy starry fields
And thinking of the days that are no more.

FRED as the first faint glimmering on a sail
That brings our friends and loved ones back
And as the fast quick redness over the sea
That strikes with all the force of our long-gone, so, no more, the days that are no more?

AL: No! And summer days in dark summer dwindle
The earliest glim of half a season leads
To drifting days when nothing is to come
The constant slowly grows a dimming square—
No, no, strange, the days that are no more!

JOAN as remembered knees after death
And aware we think we have long passed
On lips that are for others; deep as none
As with all here, and with all here, the end
Of Death in life, the days that are no more!

again be revived on Wednesday night, when a contest between a, amateur champion of the State, also won the Junior championship at Palm Beach, and Mr. Garrett, the champion of Rhode Island. The contest of the two shipwreckers' prize is highly exciting, and will see the much sport for the people on Sunday.

OUR MOTHER

BY John Greenleaf Whittier

CALL the old time back; I bring these days
To thee, in memory of the coming days;
For, by my mother's side, and father's knee,
We dreamed them over, while the rivulets made
Hush of their own, and the great pine trees laid
On warm noon slumber the silence of their shade.

And she was with us, living her night
Her life to ours, despite of the coming pain—
The autumn's brightness after late rain.

It brought in her holy peace, as one
Who waits, at evening, when the work is done,
Absorbed in the attitude of prayer.

The memory makes our common landscape seem Foster this time of which pale winters dream,
Linger the brown hills and steep in the stream.

For she whose speech was always truth's pure gold
Hear'd, and understood, the simple words that
And lived with us as the beautiful and old.

FROM ORLANDO TO THE OCEAN.

The Day Is Not Far Distant When a Hard Road Will Extend Across Two of Florida's Fairest Counties.

The committee appointed from the Florida East Coast Automobile Association and the Board of Trade will soon take up the matter of inducing the various municipal corporations of the county to waive their right to a share of the special road tax, which the County Commissioners some time ago resolved to levy for the purpose of building a hard road between DeLand and Daytona.

This road is of vital concern to every citizen of Volusia County, and when it is completed motorists and others may make tours to the many pretty inland towns of Florida.

The Orlando Daily Reporter, in speaking of a hard road from Orlando to Daytona, says:

"The advantages of a good, hard road to the coast were discussed long before the advent of the automobile, and perhaps the first real attempt to break a way through the country was made some years ago, when the bicycle was in more general use, and a path was established to accommodate certain of our townsmen who desired to run over to the beach during the summer to take a dip in the briny deep.

"It has been the invariable summer custom of a number of our citizens to drive across country to the various seaside resorts, located on the beach from New Smyrna to Daytona, and primarily the suggestion looking toward a suitable road came from that quarter. But now that the automobile is so much in evidence, the greater advantages to be secured by such a road are of vast moment to the citizens of Orange county in several ways.

"It will open up a direct route for the many autoists who rendezvous at Daytona and Ormond, to make extended trips into Orange County as far south as Orlando, and will without doubt bring a class of wealthy, money-spending tourists into this section that no other inducement than such a road would succeed in doing. Especially would this be true after the Ormond-Daytona races, when the owners of motor machines would look for other worlds to conquer, and doubtless many an auto party would head this way.

"On the other hand, this road would be of inestimable value to all those of our folks who would wish to go over to these coast resorts or to any point between Sanford and Daytona. For instance a party would breakfast in Orlando, dine in DeLand and take tea in Daytona, all on the same day and with the greatest

PABLO-ATLANTIC BEACH RACES.

Vanderbilt's Big Car Will Race There
In April—Hamilton, the Aeronaut,
Will Make Three Ascensions

With Vanderbilt's big 250-horsepower eight-cylinder automobile racing against time on Pablo-Atlantic Beach, and with the daring little aeronaut, Charles Hamilton, making three ascents on his aeroplane, some rare sport is promised Jacksonville for the first week in April. At that time a three days' racing program, under the auspices of the Jacksonville Automobile and Motorboat Association, will be held on Pablo-Atlantic Beach. The principal events will be for stock cars, with the majority of entries made by the Duval County enthusiasts. Many from other parts of the State have signified their intentions of entering the events and excellent sport is promised.

Several bystanders rushed to Mr. Holt's assistance, and moved his prostrate form from beneath the machine. He was taken to Dr. Atwood's office, where it was found that no bones were broken, but the left leg was badly bruised and a piece of flesh torn from the limb.

Messrs. R. D. Weller, Cash M. Thomas and G. E. Shepherd will leave tomorrow on a trip to Bulow in the launch Columbia.

This paper was in error yesterday afternoon, in stating that there would be a meeting of the City Council last evening. Meetings are held the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month.

INJURED BY A RUNABOUT.

E. M. P. Holt Meets With an Accident on Beach Street Monday Afternoon—No Bones Broken.

Just after The Daily News went to press yesterday afternoon E. M. P. Holt met with an accident that will confine him to his bed at The Austin for several days, at least.

He was riding his bicycle down Beach Street, and when in front of Aultman's store was struck from the rear by a Maxwell runabout, owned by B. A. Armstrong. The machine was in charge of the chauffeur, and Mr. Armstrong was not in it at the time of the accident.

Several bystanders rushed to Mr. Holt's assistance, and moved his prostrate form from beneath the machine. He was taken to Dr. Atwood's office, where it was found that no bones were broken, but the left leg was badly bruised and a piece of flesh torn from the limb.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS DINE.

Delightful Time Spent Last Night at Masonic Hall.—Ridgewood Orchestra Discourses Music.

The Knights of Pythias supper given last evening at Masonic Hall, was thoroughly enjoyed by the members, together with their families, who partook of the sumptuous chicken pie repast.

During the evening, music was furnished by the Ridgewood Orchestra, which greatly pleased those in attendance.

Miss Florence Cook rendered two songs, which were exceptionally sweet.

All retired at a late hour, having spent a very pleasant evening.

Not Like Other Girls.

Miss Alyce Kee Nan, who comes to this city, to the Opera House, Feb. 13, never tires of discussing her recent visit to Italy. Miss Kee Nan believes in going through life with her eyes wide open and although the public is accustomed to seeing her in varied lines, thus quite naturally forming the opinion that she is interested only in the lighter vein of things theatrical, Miss Kee Nan is a close student of everything that pertains to the stage and this year she has been fitted with a character in "Not Like Other Girls," that suits her personality, and on her appearance here, her many friends, who are legion, will doubtless give her an ovation.

*Moore Brothers have the name of having the handsomest line of Summer Dress Goods of any one in town, and this year is no exception. Their new goods are now on exhibition.

The friends of Mrs. Louis Griffing, of North Bloomfield, N. Y., formerly Miss Florence Nast, who spent last winter in Daytona, will be grieved to learn of her death in the above place on January 28, from tuberculosis. Mrs. Griffing had a large number of acquaintances here. The sympathy of the community is extended to her young husband who is also well known in Daytona.

RIX AGAIN CRAWLS DOWN.

Decides Finally To Get Off the Mayoralty Band Wagon—Leaves the Field to Smith and Greene.

James Rix has thought for some time that he would remain in the race for the mayoralty, and only yesterday he told The Daily News that he was in the race to a finish. Mr. Rix, however, has changed his mind, and now decides that he will slide from off the mayoralty band wagon, and be content to remain a private citizen. Mr. Rix says that his health is not the best, and he feels that it would not be discrete to longer take part in the campaign. Mr. Rix assured The Daily News that this decision is final, and that no influence will persuade him to stand for the office.

This leaves Charles L. Smith and E. W. Greene the only candidates for the office.

Work has started on the new dock for P. J. Doyle, on Beach Street. A large quantity of palmetto piling has been placed on the ground, which will be used in its construction.

F. C. Gardner has a force of men putting down a well on the property he recently purchased from Geo. W. Tebo, on South Ridgewood. Mr. Gardner intends to begin the erection of a neat dwelling at an early date.

Captain Ross Zuber, of this city, has been placed in command of the launch Iola, belonging to James O. Winn, the Atlanta insurance man. The two Swedes who arrived off Daytona and came ashore have returned to their respective homes in New York, having been discharged by Mr. Winn.

T. O. Rouse, of Jacksonville, representing Armour & Co., is among the business visitors to the city.

George W. Tebo left Monday, to the regret of his many friends, on the return trip to his home in Dover, Del., after spending a couple of weeks in Daytona.

M. B. Aultman has opened a branch store near the Ormond Hotel, where he carries a very nice line of gents' furnishings. P. Rodgers is in charge of the branch.

The Home Mission Society, of the Kingston M. E. Church, South, will give a "birthday party" at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Christy, corner First and Ridgewood Avenues, on the evening of the 22nd inst.

A Poem for Today

THE DAYS THAT ARE NO MORE

By Alfred Tennyson

TEARS, idle tears! I know not what they mean.
Tears from the depth of some divine despair
Rise in the heart and gather to the eyes
In looking on the happy autumn fields
And thinking of the days that are no more.

Fresh as the first beam glittering on a sail
That brings our friends up from the underworld;
Sad as the last which reddens over one
That sinks with all we love below the verge—
So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more!

Ah! Sad and strange as in dark summer dawns
The earliest pipe of half-awakened birds
To dying ears when unto dying eyes
The casement slowly grows a glimmering square—
So sad, so strange, the days that are no more!

Dear as remembered kisses after death
And sweet as those by hopeless fancy foined
On lips that are for others; deep as love—
Deep as first love and wild with all regret—
O Death in Life, the days that are no more!

Trap Shooting.

The trap shooting, which last year proved quite a feature at Seabreeze, will again be revived on Wednesday of this week, when a contest between Mr. Seene, amateur champion of New York State, who won the Dewar championship trophy at Palm Beach, last year, and Mr. Gavotte, the champion shot of Rhode Island. The contest between the two sharp shooters promises to be highly exciting, and will no doubt afford much sport for the people on the peninsula.

*FOR SALE—HOUSE BOAT, YACHT, BUILD AND FINISH. 97 over all, 20ft beam, 2ft 6 draft. Twin screws, gas engines, electric lighted. Complete in every detail. Now in commission at Miami. R. M. Munroe, Coconut Grove, Fla.

A Poem for Today

OUR MOTHER

By John Greenleaf Whittier

CALL the old time back; I bring these days
To thee, in memory of the summer days
When, by our native streams and forest ways,
We dreamed them over; while the rivulets made
Songs of their own, and the great pine trees laid
On warm noon lights the masses of their shade.

And she was with us, living o'er again
Her life in ours, despite of years and pain—
The autumn's brightness after later rain.

Beautiful in her holy peace, as one
Who stands, at evening, when the work is done,
Glorified in the setting of the sun.

Her memory makes our common landscape seem Fairer than any of which painters dream,
Lights the brown hills and sings in every stream.

For she whose speech was always truth's pure gold
Heard, not unpleased, its ample legends told,
And loved with us the beautiful and old.

MRS. POST FILES BOND.

$2,000 Bond Filed for Appearance Before Circuit Court of Appeals.—
Case Comes up in November.

Mrs. Helen Wilkins-Post, of Seabreeze, convicted last week for the second time of fraudulent use of the mails, Monday, filed her bond for appearance before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.
The bond given is in the sum of $2,000.
The conditions are that it shall be forfeited if the defendant, Mrs. Post, fails to appear before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, on the third day of November, 1906, and from day to day thereafter until the appeal from the judgment of the lower court is acted upon. In case the lower court is affirmed, she binds herself to appear before it and await its further action, pending, of course, further moves by her counsel.

The appeal, according to the date set in the bond, will not be acted upon by the Circuit Court of Appeals until its session at New Orleans next November.
In the event that they over-ride the findings of the lower court as was the case after the first trial, it will mean that the entire case will have to come again be fought over in the District Court.
In the event that the District Court is sustained, counsel still have the right of carrying an appeal to the United States Supreme Court. This will, of course, mean a still further delay, as the making of transcripts and the preparation of other details requires time. Then the case cannot be passed upon by the Supreme Court until cases preceding it have been disposed of, etc.

All things considered, it is regarded as extremely unlikely that Mrs. Post will ever serve a jail sentence.

F. E. Stephens, of Jacksonville, is in the city on business.

Miss Katie Carter, of East Palestine, is visiting friends in Daytona.

A Jackson, of O'Brien, was among the Floridians spending Monday in Daytona.

J. S. Tyson, Jr., of Jacksonville, was late Monday attending to business affairs.

F. C. Rodgers has been placed in charge of Ashland's branch store at Ocoee.

William Forster, a prominent resident of New Smyrna, spent Monday in Daytona.

The guests of The Bennett will be entertained this evening with a card party. Progressive number will be played.

May-Smith has been a permit to construct an addition to the Rose B. Thomas house, near the railroad station.

The owners have had viewing of the Opera House by a third of the season, resulting in a decided success. The concert was given by a fine audience.

R. L. Hough and C. A. Wally, both prominent and valued affiliates of the Exchange National Bank of Chicago, are in Daytona. They are located at Schmidt's Villa.

Bedford Dwan and John V. Caldwell left this morning in the launch Knight, on a hunting and fishing trip up the river. They expect to return Sunday morning.

The police have caught five stray dogs and put them in the pound last night, but they escaped. This morning they were fortunate in catching all of the number except one.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rugg and their daughter, Miss Helen, coming from Jersey City, N. J., are among the recent arrivals at the popular Belmont's Villa. They expect to spend the balance of the season in Daytona.

Howard E. Lynn, of Ocala, N. Y., proprietor of the Hotel Palmetto, is in the City looking for non-residents, who have not yet paid the necessary license. Those who should provide license had better get it today, as the game season is commencing several days.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Eath entertained a number of their friends last Friday afternoon, in honor of the 10th anniversary of their marriage. Quite a number of their friends were present, and the afternoon was delightfully spent.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its farthest extreme and midway between its sources at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampeleopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions. The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macadamized and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving on automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees, and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to health, richness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinement of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This town is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect as Daytona Beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exciting and thrilling sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-lined boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebttide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature of Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected here. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona. At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavallie, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season tourists see bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river. Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
